

Pressrelease from pbhmedia

Falkenberg, Sweden - March 25, 2019

Upcoming release from Electric City Cowboys - here is "Superstar".

Finally! The debut album from Electric City Cowboys is ready to launch. "Superstar" is a 10 track album filled with electronic energy, uptempo beats and catchy melodies.

Electric City Cowboys is a synth pop project from Karlshamn, Sweden. Martin Johansson, Mikael Johansson and Robert Carlsson have known each other for many years and in 2012 they decided to start making music together. The first song they recorded was "Dance Into The Night" and for this album they have done a new version of it.

In 2018 Electric City Cowboys were part of the compilation "Night City Tribute - The Songs of Secret Service" with their version of "The Way You Are" (originally recorded by Ola Håkansson and Agnetha Fältskog), together with the very talented singer/guitarist Mia Moilanen. On the "Superstar" album, the collaboration with her continues in a duet between Martin and Mia ("Calling Your Name"). She also sings the backing vocals on three other tracks.

The album "Superstar" will be released via pbhmedia on May 3rd, available on CD, digital download and streaming. Welcome to download your digital copy of the album via <http://pbhmedia.bandcamp.com/yum>, entering the exclusive code enclosed with this.
